Tim Strohane: Drought, Water Law, and the Origins of California's Central Valley Project

How did the California Water Wars start?
How did the evolution of water law create the struggles we face today?
How can we fix that mess?

Albany author, Tim Strohane, takes on these questions in his new book: Drought, Water Law, and the Origins of California's Central Valley Project.

This book is an account of how water rights were designed as a key part of the state's largest public water system, the Central Valley Project. Along sixty miles of the San Joaquin River, from Gustine to Mendota, four corporate entities called "exchange contractors" retain paramount water rights to the river. Their rights descend

Have you submitted a public comment on the critically important Bay-Delta Water Quality Control Plan yet? The State Water Board has extended the submission of written comments to March 17, 2017 by 12:00 p.m.

If not, please plan to submit a comment today. For details on submitting a public comment or for more information on this plan, click here.

SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN COMMENTS

The State Water Board will accept both written and oral comments on the proposed Plan Amendment and the SED. Written comments must be received no later than 12:00 noon on March 17, 2017, and addressed and submitted to:

Jeanine Townsend, Clerk to the Board
State Water Resources Control Board
1001 I Street, 24th Floor
Sacramento, CA 95814-0100

Comment letters may be submitted electronically, in pdf text format (if less than 15 megabytes in total size) to the Clerk to the Board via e-mail at commentletters@waterboards.ca.gov. Please indicate in the subject line:

“Comment Letter – 2016 Bay-Delta Plan Amendment & SED.”

You may also submit your comments by fax at (916) 341-5620. Electronic submission is preferred, but not required.

Couriers delivering comment letters must check in with lobby security personnel, who can contact Jeanine Townsend at (916) 341-5600.
